CALHOUN COUNTY Senior Millage

The Senior Millage provides funding for services for seniors in Calhoun County aged 60 years and older. Through this funding, seniors are able to access services to meet needs that cannot be met through other resources. The Senior Millage Allocation Committee consists of 13 members appointed by the Calhoun County Board of Commissioners. The allocation committee makes program and funding recommendations to the Board of Commissioners each year.

All services listed in this brochure are sponsored by the citizens of Calhoun County through their support of the Senior Millage. Services are available to any Calhoun County resident who is aged 60 and over. Some programs, however, have additional income and eligibility requirements.
